Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

6 July 1984
CIPC-M-11

MEMORANDUM FOR: Critical Intelligence Problems Committee

FROM:

Executive Secretary

25X1

SUBJECT: Minutes of the Eleventh Critical Intelligence Problems
Committee Meeting, 25 June 1984

25X1

1. The meeting of the Critical Intelligence Problems Committee was convened at 1530 hours on 25 June 1984 by Miss Eloise Page, Chairman.

25X1

2. Miss Page introduced several individuals attending their first CIPC meeting (Ambassador McNeil--the new State member, Mr. Hal St. Aubin--US Navy, Dr. Robert Priddy--Army, and [redacted]-DIA). Miss Page also stated that [redacted] was preparing to depart his position as CIPC Vice Chairman to become Chief of NSA's newly established Office of Operational ELINT and also Associate Director of NSA for National ELINT Planning.

25X1

3. Miss Page announced that the DCI had recently been briefed on the CIPC and its activities by [redacted]. A "milestone chart" that had been prepared for the DCI was distributed to the members; as requested by the DCI, this chart will be revised every three months. [redacted] commented that both the DCI and the DDCI appeared genuinely interested in the CIPC and its activities, both past and future.

4. Miss Page announced that the CIPC Terrorism Study, has been delayed in order to incorporate in it material from the NSDD 138 response which, in turn, is due to the National Security Planning Group by 31 July. She presumed that all members had received copies of the draft response and stated the next CIPC meeting, scheduled for 16 July, will be for the purpose of discussing and rank ordering terrorism initiatives.

25X1

5. She also announced that the senior panel for the Soviet Mobile Missile Study will be established in the next several weeks under the chairmanship of [redacted] former Deputy Director of Foreign Intelligence for DIA. (C)

6. Miss Page introduced [] the Chairman of the CBW Working Group who discussed the ten meetings of the group and its approach to the CBW problem. He reported that one of the key issues facing the group was that of Community coordination, an issue also being addressed by the Defense Science Board. He mentioned that the working group favors the establishment of a DCI CBW Committee, but that an alternative recommendation was also included in the report. []
